The Hongkong Telegraph

HONGKONG, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1890.

TELEGRAMS.

LOSS OF AN AUSTRIAN MAN-OF-WAR.
LONDON, September 17th.

The Austrian war-ship Taurus was foundered in the Euxine. 72 persons drowned.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

BARON DE LISSA broke his leg the other day, we regret to hear. In consequence of a fall from his horse while riding near Sandakan.

THE Ocean Steamship Co.'s steamer Yasoon, from Liverpool, left Singapore for Hongkong this morning, and is due on the 25th inst.

We are informed by the agents (Messrs. D. S.
Sassoon, Sons & Co.) that the steamer Japan, from Calcutta, left Singapore to-day for this port.

AN Emergency Convocation of the Chapter, No.
1165, will be held in the Freemasons' Hall, Zetland Street, this evening, at 8.30 for 9 o'clock precisely. Visiting companions are cordially invited.

LONDON Engineering says it need excite no surprise if before many years the first-class Atlantic ships maintain an average speed of thirty to thirty-five miles an hour, and a four-days' journey between Queenstown and Sandy Hook is probably not at all an impossible thing in the future.

We are asked to state that at a meeting of the British Mercantile Marine Officers' Association to be held at the Marine Hotel at 9 o'clock to-night, the general discussion upon the Sunday Labour question will close with the movement of a resolution in connection with that much-vexed question.

News reached Hongkong to-day that Senor F. M. Rivero, the Spanish Consul here, had died early in the morning in Japan. Sen. Rivero, who was formerly a professor in the University at Barcelona, was the Spanish representative here for the last three years, and left for Japan about a month ago in a poor state of health.

MESSRS. Adamson, Bell & Co., agents for the Canadian-Pacific Line, inform us that the steamship Albatross from Vancouver 20th ult., arrived at Yokohama on the 14th inst., and leaves Nagasaki for this port to-morrow. The steamers Sussex and Mongkut, both from Yokohama 31st ult., arrived at Vancouver on the 17th inst.

THE Band of the A. & S. Highlanders will play the following programme at the Barrack Square, this evening, commencing at 7.30 o'clock:—

March "Alison".....Wakelin.
Lancers "The Girl of the Year".....Gang.
Polo "The Girl of the Year".....Gang.
Gallops "The Girl of the Year".....Gang.

We learn from the Avenir du Tonkin that our old acquaintance M. Mayne, King of the Sedangs, is en route to his kingdom, with M.
Villeroi d'Anglais. The greatest precautions have been taken in all the Residences in Cambodia, Cochin-China, Annam, and Tonquin—right up to the Chinese frontier—to prevent his passage.
But he'll get there just the same.

PETER Lechner is known as the most lonely man in Europe. He is connected with the weather bureau service, and is stationed on top of the Schönblick Mountains, in the Austrian Alps. There he lives month in and month out. It is the custom of the villagers in Christmas day to cut their way up and take him present. Throughout the year this is the only time he sees a human face.

At the Summary Court this morning Mr. Justice Wilder delivered judgment in the case *Salvi v.
Barretto*, in which the plaintiff claimed $500 damages for trespass committed by the defendant on the morning of the 3rd inst. Mr. Pollock (instructed by Mr. Roddy) appeared for the plaintiff.
His lordship pointed out that in the cases cited by Mr. Pollock trespass had been committed in pursuance of some judicial order, whereas in this case the defendant simply broke in to look for some woman. He thought the plaintiff would be amply compensated with $500 and costs, and granted immediate execution accordingly.

THE arrangements for the aerial exhibition by Mr. Spencer to-morrow are now completed.
The two Grand Stands have been fixed in together with a large slice of the Race-course and Inner Oval, and seats have been placed round the spot on which the balloon is to be inflated.

The Band of the A. & S. Highlanders have issued an attractive programme, and as fine weather has set in it may be safely prognosticated that Hongkong will spend an afternoon at the Happy Valley on Saturday afternoon which, as far as amusement and excitement go, cannot be surpassed—especially if the parachute won't open.

A SHEKEL of gold was $8. A firkin was seven pence. A talent of gold was $13,500. A talent of silver was $138.30. Ezekiel's reed was nearly eleven feet. A cubit was nearly twenty-two inches. A bin was one quarter of a glass. A mishk of silver was about fifty cents. A piece of silver, or a penny, was 15 cents. A Sabbath day's journey was about an English mile. An ephah, or bath, contains seven gallons and five pints. A day's journey was about twenty-three and one-half miles. A hand's breadth is equal to three and five-eighths inches. A finger's breadth is equal to one inch. A farthing was 7 cents.

THE centre of attraction at Mr. Woodhouse's muster in the Police Court this morning was unquestionably the case of Shek Janno, a watchman at the Peak Hotel, versus pretty little Mrs.
Janno and thirteen relatives and friends, all of whom were drawn up in line before his Worship. It is many a long day since such a formidable and motley array of defendants, in one case, were put on the "stand."

Our model model de justice, there they were, Indians, Arabs, Chinese, Hottentots, Malays, —of both sexes—all jammed-up together.
Poor Janno, who Chinese misers left him a week ago because he seemed cranky and did not supply her with "plopah chow-chow," blamed the whole gang for the abduction of his wife, and, while going through all sorts of antics in the "box," charged them with entering into a wicked conspiracy to poison him with fiendish drugs. His Worship, after being informed by Sergeant Wiltchell that the complainant seemed to be a simpleton, short, and unable to nuance to the "neighbourhood," and support his heavy little better half, dismissed the case, read Mr. Shek Janno a severe lesson upon the impropriety of his conduct, generally, and refused to grant an order for the compulsory return of the faithless Jimmima.

As we mentioned in a telegram yesterday, by order of Schuyler, which is one of the so-called forwarded to be strictly excluded from all school histories published by authority, and it is officially proclaimed that the Tell stories are nothing more or less than fanciful, if patriotic, legends. A dispatch from Geneva says that the despair of the Swiss who have kept and exhibited Tell's chapel, pointed out the exact spot where he made his famous speech, and the apples, and the cow, which the Tell stories brought to light, and the cow, which the Tell stories brought to light, and the cow, which the Tell stories brought to light, and the cow, which

NEWSPAPER VERACITY.

A recent number of the Medical and Surgical Reporter, in an editorial article on the subject of being buried alive, takes occasion to impugn the veracity of the press, and to slander the agent of the Associated Press at Chicago. Speaking of a story which proved to be without foundation, the writer says: "The Associated Press agent in Chicago who started the story around the country, on being asked if he thought there was any truth in it, replied to our representative: 'I am not supposed to believe everything these fellows (meaning the reporters) write.' ... We hope that those who manage the daily newspapers will some day properly punish reporters who furnish them with such cruel inventions."

We take the liberty of entirely discrediting the remark attributed to the Chicago agent of the Associated Press, says a San Francisco journal. It is not at all likely that he made it in the form given. If asked his individual opinion of the story—a question, by the way, which should not have been asked—he may have said, as any one would, that many reports and rumors are to be received with caution; but as to vilifying reporters generally, it is not reasonable to suppose that he did so, inasmuch as he must depend on reporters for the news he distributes. He is supposed to believe what the reporters write, unless there be some strong grounds for disbelief, and as his function is simply that of a collector and distributor of news, he would shortly be out of business if he received every item with suspicion and insisted on verifying it before he sent it out.

As to the daily newspapers, there is no assertion or insinuation more absurd than that they prefer falsehood to truth. It is the constant aim of every respectable newspaper to supply the public with information on current topics and incidents of interest, and it would be the height of folly to discard the truth for mendacity. An out-and-out lie cannot possibly escape detection, and detection means loss of prestige and loss of business, two things which no newspaper likes to suffer.

That a newspaper may be and often is mistaken no one will seek to deny. The only wonder is that, in view of its varied sources of information and of the desire which outsiders have to use a newspaper as a means to gratify personal spite and malice, the mistakes are not more frequent.

An illustration may serve to make this point more clear. Taking up an exchange at random, in this case a Texas paper, we find an article beginning: "The sensational fact was learned last evening by a reporter for this paper that W. C. Bruce, the missing forger, is the son of one of the wealthiest and proudest families of Missouri." etc. That is certainly a genuine piece of news, but does any sane person suppose that the reporter of the paper invented it, or that the paper published it knowing it to be false? The story may or may not be true, but the newspaper's veracity cannot be impugned, since its article clearly refers to some source of information.

Many people are entirely too ready to charge lack of veracity on a newspaper when even an immaterial mistake is made. For example, a newspaper published an obituary notice of Mr. William Jones, saying that he came to this State in the spring of 1850, and some old-timer will read it and exclaim: "What blankety blank lies the newspapers have got to be. I mined with old Bill Jones on the south fork of the Yuba in the fall of '49," and so the innocent and entirely blameless error in the date of Bill Jones' arrival in California is set down to the discredit of the veracity of the newspaper.

The fact is, however, that everybody does believe the newspaper, except in those cases where an error is within the reader's personal knowledge. Then, if he be a man of sense, he credits the paper with an honest mistake; if not, he rushes to the conclusion that all newspapers are liars, and that, as Mark Twain said of the Kanakas, they will lie for six bits when they could make a dollar and a quarter by telling the truth. It is not true in any sense that a newspaper—that is, a respectable newspaper—lies for the sake of lying. On the contrary, its rule is a strict adherence to truth. As to punishing its reporters for furnishing it with inventions, the universal rule of every well-conducted newspaper is that the falsification of news entails the discharge of the mendacious reporter without benefit of clergy.
